UNION STATE CONVENTION.
The friends of the State of Vermont, who are in favor of the election of ABRAHAM LINCOLN and ANDREW JOHNSON, are hereby notified to meet at the Convention at Burlington, on Tuesday, the 11th day of October next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Presidential Electors, to be supported at the approaching election.
JOHN W. STEWART,
STEWART B. COLBY,
LESLIE B. COLBY,
JOSEPH C. DUBOIS,
JONATHAN ROSS,
ROBERT CLARK,
GEORGE WILKINS.

—Lieut. Col. Edward A. Smith, eldest son of the late Rev. Worthington Smith, D. D., and now attached to the Tenth Army Corps on Gen. Birney's staff, was recently in town on a short furlough, visiting his relatives and friends.
—The highway between St. Albans Village and St. Albans Bay is in a condition that reflects no credit upon the town or corporation.
—The Vermont and Canada Railroad Company are erecting immediately west of their machine shops, a large wooden building for the storage of lumber and like purposes.

—Sergeant William A. Clapp, Co. J, of the Vermont Cavalry, who has been dangerously ill at the Campbell Hospital, at Washington, has arrived in St. Albans, and is gradually improving in health and strength.
—We understand that the cheese factory at East Berkshire, established by Mr. Austin A. Moore, has proved a marked success. Its operation can not however be continued very late in the season. Sales of over three hundred cheeses at the handsome figure of twenty-six cents a pound were recently made.

—Provost Marshal Gleason has recently received orders, directing that the draft proceed on Monday last, Sept. 19th, beginning with the deficient towns where there is the least volunteering. The quota of every town must be filled.
—The United States Christian Commission has received from citizens of St. Albans, through Henry L. Brainerd, Esq., five dollars and thirty cents in money, 13 bottles of blackberry syrup, 12 comfort bags well filled, which have been duly forwarded. Two barrels from the same source were forwarded several weeks since, but were, from some accident, not acknowledged heretofore.

—Mr. B. F. Mason, of Woodstock, the distinguished portrait painter, is now in St. Albans, employed for the time being in the practice of his profession. They are fortunate who possess specimens of his choice works of art.
—We regret to learn that E. Marvin Smalley, Esq., of Swanton, is about to remove from the State. Mr. Smalley proposes to locate in Chicago.

—We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Joseph A. Brainerd, of Co. L, of the 1st Vermont Cavalry, who died at Lynchburg, August 15th, 1864. He was wounded in the side in an engagement with the enemy and taken prisoner. A fellow captive, who was subsequently exchanged, was entrusted by Mr. Brainerd with his history and private effects, and directed to notify his wife and child of his history and fate. As he was taken ill soon after his death, he was not able to discharge his duty until lately, and the tidings were received here by last Monday's mail. Mr. Brainerd, Esq., a brave soldier and loyal to his country and friends, and leaves a mother, sister, wife and child, as well as a large circle of other relatives and friends, to mourn his loss.

[COMMUNICATED.]
Be it known to those who persist in passing base tokens, that the penalty for doing is a fine not to exceed $100, or one year imprisonment for passing, passing or attempting to pass any such tokens representing the denomination of one cent. Several business firms at this place continue receiving and passing them, while others, as they would, refuse them.
"LAW."

A special dispatch from Washington to the Boston Journal, says: "An officer who arrived here to-night from the Army of the Potomac says that when the rebels heard McClellan's nomination they were distinctly heard to give three cheers, since which McClellan stock has been on the decline. Very few soldiers remain who uphold him."
